Questions You May Have...

1. Does each boy have to come with his father or a male adult? - No. It is preferred that a boy attend with a man over 18 (eg: family or friend), however, it is not necessary as long as there is a willing adult that he is responsible to (eg: a friend's father or a Brigade leader).

2. Will the participants be insured? - Yes, Brigade does carry insurance for these events.

Please notify the leaders of any physical condition that could affect participation in the weekend's events.
