Questions You May Have...

1. Does each boy have to come with his father or a male adult? - No. It is preferred that a boy attend with a man over 18 (eg: family or friend), however, it is not necessary as long as there is a willing adult that he is responsible to (eg: a friend's father or a Brigade leader).
2. Will the participants be insured? - Yes, Brigade does carry insurance for these events.

Please notify the leaders of any physical condition that could affect participation in the weekend's events.

You may pick your own camping spot within your unit's assigned area, but, We need to average 6-8 people per site.

Cost per person:
