Battalion Uniform Patches, Badges and Pins

RIGHT SLEEVE

Observer Badge

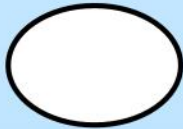

This patch recognizes that the Brigadier has completed the introductory rank in Battalion.

Local & Regional Badges

These awards are presented by the local CSB Area or the CSB Region for specialized activities, such as camps, training and celebrations.

Awards & Pins

Battalion awards - One, Two and Three Star pins above the Explorer, Trailblazer and Guide pins.

Stockade awards—Builder Star pin, Builder Pin, Sentinel Pin, then Sentinel Star pin.

Battalion Patches

Activity Patches, Areas of Interest and Mission Patches are completed by the Battalion as a group. These are placed on the uniform starting beneath the right pocket and then the left, as shown.

Achievement Badges

These are earned by completing the ranks in the Adventure & Leadership Trail Guides. These badges are placed consecutively in the same location on the uniform with the previous rank replaced by the current one.

Herald of Christ Gold Pin

This is the highest award earned by a young man in CSB. It is worn above the heart, indicating the young man's love for Christ.

LEFT SLEEVE

Unit Insignia

The Battalion insignia is worn at the top of the left sleeve.

Unit Numerals—These form the Church's Unit number which establishes its CSB identity.

Noncom Stripes

Lance Corporal, Corporal and Sergeant Stripes are worn to show a young man's leadership role.

"CSB Shield" Insignia

is provided pre-sewn on every Battalion uniform. It's location provides the centerline which determines the position of all the other uniform badges, patches and pins.
