

BUILDER TRAILS 1 BLOCKHOUSE 2

Achievement Sampler

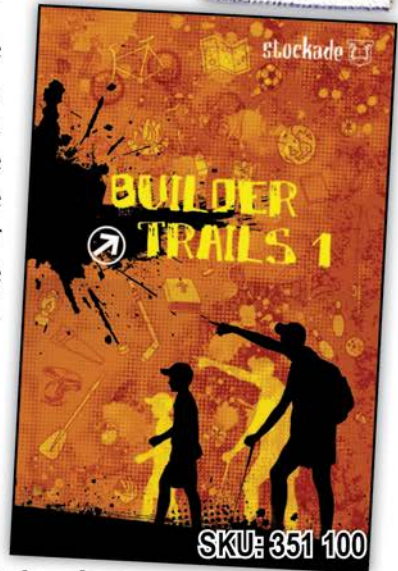

Use this sampler to complete some CSB Achievement at home. Your parent, another relative or a family friend can help you with the memory verses and the individual Achievements. When you are done, show your completed work to your Stockade Ranger. He can help you get the entire Builder 1 Trail Guide and earn all the Blockhouses and Patches.

Print this pdf as a “Booklet” or “Multiple” using Adobe Reader.

You can obtain Builder Trails 1 from:

CSB US - store.csbministries.org

CSB Canada - store.christianservicebrigade.ca

The complete Builder Trails 1 is made up of four Blockhouses, each with challenging Achievements separated into five sections. A Blockhouse begins with Exploring God’s Word, which sets a theme through an exciting Bible story, application, and activity. Next comes Trail Signs – Bible memory verses that speak God’s Truth into the Blockhouse theme. In the middle section are the Stockade Foundations that take a closer look at the nuts and bolts of the Stockade and the Stockader’s role within it. This is followed by the Outpost Adventure Page. The final section is Others and Me – one to three activities which help the boy develop personal skills in living with others.

The Brightest Light

Acts 9:1-20

“Let’s go,” Saul ordered. He wanted to arrest every follower of Jesus he could find. Saul thought he was one of God’s best servants. He knew a lot about God and wanted to obey Him. When he learned that some people believed Jesus was God’s Son, he knew they were wrong. With all his might, he would stop them.

Saul searched Jerusalem for Christians. When he found them, he arrested and beat them, and threw them into prison. In fact, he even approved of killing them. Then, Saul heard about the Christians in Damascus. He decided to arrest them, too, and drag them to Jerusalem for trial.

He was travelling along quite pleased with himself when suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. Saul fell to the ground, blinded by its brilliance. A voice called out, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

“Who are You, Lord?” Saul answered.

The voice replied clearly, “I am Jesus, the One you’re fighting. Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.

The men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one. When the light disappeared, they heard Saul shouting, “I can’t see!” So, they led him into Damascus and took him to the house of a man named Judas. There he stayed for three days, eating and drinking nothing.

Meanwhile, a follower of Jesus named Ananias was in his home when God spoke to him. “Ananias, I want you to go to the house of Judas. There is a blind man there who is praying. He is Saul of Tarsus. He learned in a vision that you’re coming to help him.”

“But, Lord,” Ananias protested, “many people have suffered and even died because of this man.”

“Ananias, GO! I’ve chosen Saul to be my witness and to take the Gospel to many people. I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name’s sake.”

Ananias went and found Saul. Gently, he placed his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you may receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” Right away, Saul’s eyes opened. That same day, Saul was baptized as a follower of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. He ate and drank, and regained his strength.

For several days, Saul stayed with the Christians in Damascus. He preached in the Jewish meeting places and proved from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

People gasped in amazement. Surely, this was Saul from Jerusalem—the enemy of Christians! But, he told them “Now I know that Jesus is the Son of the Living God; my Savior, my Lord and my King. He loves me and I love Him.”

After reading the story, or having it read to you, tell your Ranger the answers to these questions:

- ✝ Why was Saul hurting Christians?
- ✝ God told Ananias that he had an important job for Saul. What was that job? Why was that job important to us also?
- ✝ Ananias was a brave man who did what God asked him to do. What excuses could he have used to avoid seeing Saul?
- ✝ Saul thought he knew God, but he didn’t. Some people think they’re Christians and hope they’re going to heaven, but they don’t know about God’s plan of salvation. How does someone become a Christian? Look at the Bible verses on the inside front cover of this book.

Paul, the Missionary

There's more to the story...

Saul's name was changed to Paul, which means "humble". He told people in many countries about God's good news of salvation. The Trail Signs in this Blockhouse say that God loves you and wants to give you eternal life. Have you asked Jesus to be your Savior? Your Ranger would be happy to tell you more about God's Good News. You can become a believer just like Saul did in this Bible story.

Think about people who:

- ★ Live in your neighbourhood
- ★ Attend your school
- ★ Live in other countries

If Jesus is your Saviour, make a list of the people you know. Pray for them, and ask God to help them believe in Jesus. Then, pray for kids in other countries.

People in my neighbourhood: _____

People in my school: _____

People around the world: _____

Paul Visits Galatia

Paul suffered many trials in the mission field, but also much success. It began with his first mission trip to Galatia. With Barnabas and Mark, he left Antioch and went to Seleucia. They sailed to Salamas and walked the length of Cyprus, preaching as they went. From Pathos, they sailed to Attalia, went through Perga and Lystra, then to Derbe and Iconium. From Iconium, they went to Tarsus, then to Antioch of Pisidia. The Lord blessed them with success and they moved on to Iconium, then to Lystra and Derbe. Many people believed in Jesus. Then Paul and Barnabas retraced their journey back to Antioch, bypassing Cyprus. It was the beginning of bigger things to come.

Trail Signs

Romans 3:23 “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

Romans 6:23 “For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Romans 5:8 “But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

Romans 10:9 “Because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.”

STOCKADE FOUNDATIONS:

The Stockade Prayer

Lord our Saviour, Guide and Captain,
Be a solid wall around us.

Make us all courageous servants.

Help us grow to be like Jesus. Amen.

Prayer is very important in Stockade. It is our way of talking to God. Often, we ask God to give us the things we want, but we forget about honouring God for who He is, or about telling Him we're sorry for doing wrong, or thanking Him for all we have. Sometimes we don't ask Him to help others, especially our family and friends. It's alright, God still hears our prayers, but we must remember Him and others when we pray.

Memorized and explain the Stockade Prayer.

ON THE FRONTIER

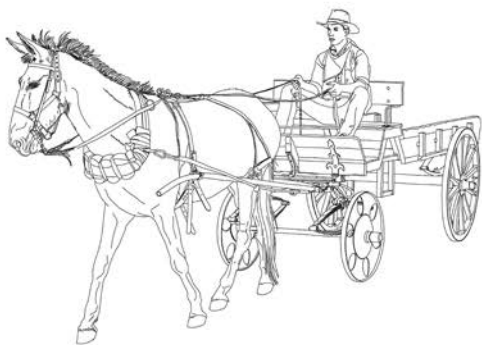

Every family comes from somewhere.

Whether you are Native American or Indigenous, or if you're European, African, or Asian, your family came to North America from somewhere else.

What's your story? Tell your Ranger the history of your family's journey to where you now live.

Now dig a little deeper:

What's the story of your community? Ask your family, teacher, or neighbor about how your hamlet, village, town or city got its start.

Share your discoveries with your Ranger.

Your Ranger, who can be your parent, relative or family friend, can help you complete your Achievements. Show your Ranger the Achievement page along with your work, and then talk with them about it. When satisfied, they will add their initials and mark down the date that the Achievement is finished.

Note: Blockhouse 2 is not quite done. Get Builder Trails 1 and finish it there.

Congratulations, these
